FUZZY ANALYSIS OF THE RESERVATION FOR OBC STUDENTS IN TECHNICAL INSTITUTIONS

W.B. Vasantha Kandasamy and Praveen Prakash

In this paper we analyze the Other Backward Classes (OBCs) reservation in higher technical education mainly in the context of students, the general and over all feelings of the students community at large, the merits and the demerits of the reservations are examined. The study is made on three category of students; OBCs, upper castes and SC/STs. The experts opinion are derived from public, teachers, students, politicians and educationalists. This paper has three sections. Section one introduces the FRBM model with illustrations. Section two analyzes the views using the FRBM model using experts opinion. Section three gives the observations made from our analysis.
